

“RULES” FOR READING

4 LITTLE THINGS TO REMEMBER

1. Follow your child's pace.

- You don't have to finish the story.
- What is your child interested in?

2. Make it a conversation.

- Both of you should be talking!
- Ask lots of questions.
- Share new ideas with your child.

3. Have FUN!!

- Use silly voices and sounds.
- Move around and act things out.
- Make connections to your child's own life.
- Sing songs or use finger plays.

4. Repeat, repeat, repeat

- Sharing the same stories over and over is great for brain development!
